Hi I see a payment for two orders yesterday that I did not make placed on my card. I did not order these. I am also contacting PayPal. What can be done. ? I like your product but it is not time for me to order as I have plenty. U believe someone hacked my account. I don't even know if they changed the/my address. I have to leave for work and can deal with PayPal on my lunch break. Please advise

Hi

I did not order this. I made a one time purchase and that was it. I never signed up for a continuous order. How do I stop the order?

I have received no emails or notices that I had a shipment coming until I saw an invoice from PayPal.

Thank you, Misty Fields
